Dear Lucy,

Your letter arrived today and I need to answer you right away, since these letters get away from me.

I was interested to see a Catherine Harriett Lippincott, b. 1848 Warren Co. Oh.

I have only recently started looking into the Lippincotts. My gt. grandfather's name was ? Horner. He had two aunts in N.Y. by the name of Lippincott on his mothers side. early-mid 1800's Since I've just begun this research, I'm not of much help, but your letter encourages me to seek further with it.

Please don't forget me, and I'll keep you in file.

thanks so much, Faith Leicht

Dear Lester,

Thank you for your letter; I'll try to help if I can.

There are two Samuel Lippincotts in Ohio, both relatively the same age and both in this area (Champaign County and Clark County, respectively). I am descended from the Champaign County Lippincott and have a bit more on him. I am going to enclose some pages from an excellant source on Lippincotts titled Lippincott; Five generations of the Descendants of Richard and Abigail Lippincott by Judith M. Olsen (published by the Gloucester County Historical Society, NJ).

Samuel B. Lippincott's descendants (far from complete, mind you) are enclosed; looking at the chart the descendants of Morgan Lippincott, Henry Lippincott might be your best lead to look at first. I think they were up north in Logan and Allen counties. Samuel had moved to Allen County, specifically Rockport, where he died.

If you can tie your Catherine into the Lippincott line by a generation or two more you'll have it made because Judith Olsen's book goes back to 1640 with a probable ancestry to the Doomsday Book.

Happy hunting; let me know if you are sucessful.

Kind regards,

Beth E. Titer

Dear Susan:

I can't remember where we left off the last time we discussed the Lippincott clan but I have found out that my husband's gr.grandmother,Catherine Harriet Lippincott Green, was not the daughter of G.W. and Sarah J.Line.

In your research of this family did you ever run across any thing that would tie Catherine to Jacob and Deborah? I really hope I can get to Sidney soon and try to find her obituary maybe that will shed some light on her.

Would you make a copy of the marriage record of Jacob / Deborah for me ? Iwould pay for it.

Have you ever been in contact with : Betty Bevans,17755 State Route47, Sidney,Ohio 45365 ? She is also looking for Lippincotts.
I wonder if Catherine could descend from one of G.W.'s children? Do you have anything on them?

I had several years of health problems so am just now getting back into this never ending search.

Hoping to hear from you soon,

Dear Lucy,

When the Champaign Co. Newsletter arrived, I did my routine scan of items, queries, etc..and was thrilled to find someone else tracing MY branch of the illusive LIPPINCOTT line !

I descend from the brother of (your) G. W. [George Washington) LIPPINCOTT, John Burges LIPPINCOTT. I am enclosing an ahnentafel and a Family Record Sheet for your review, and would appreciate active correspondence on the ancestors of John B. & G.W.

This has driven me nuts - since I correspond with a great many LIPPINCOTT descendants, none of which relate to us, at this time. Included in my work was the purchase of the book, LIPPINCOTT Five Generations of the Descendants of Richard & Abigail LIPPINCOTT by Judith Olsen. This is an excellent work, and I'm sure it will be worth the cost IF we can make the jump from our John & G.W.'s father, back to NJ.

Finding their father wasn't hard. I've had that data for over 20 years and supplemented it with census info from Warren, Shelby and Logan County. Jacob and Deborah (BURGES, widow Morris) LIPPINCOTT were married in Monmouth Co, NJ on 8 May 1806. I have a very old photocopy of a certified Marriage Record which was sent (20 years ago, +) by either Dorothy Dever or Mrs. Harry Alvis. (Back then, nobody put a personal stamp on their data, and I was young and inexperienced in research, so also neglected to note the source.) Neither Dorothy or Mrs Alvis have responded to my national ads, so I am assuming they are no longer active in research.

Secondly, (again, in my "younger days") I found a notation in a book on NJ which mentioned Deborah BURGES, widow of Elisha Morris had been appointed the Executrix of his estate. They had only been married a short time, had NO ISSUE, but he did have a daughter by a previous marriage (who appeared to be close to Deborah's age). Sorry to report that I didn't copy the front page or the data and this book, at the Mesa LDS Library has disappeared. I've spent hours reading their NJ holdings, trying to find my source material !

They moved to Warren Co, OH, then began an on-going movement between Counties.

QUESTION: What was his occupation, other than Carpenter (1850 Census, Warren Co, OH) ? They were almost iterant, never putting down roots.

QUESTION: Was his ancestry QUAKER, or had someone back a few generations "married out", and lost the family documention-connection ?

QUESTION: What of Deborah's ancestry ? Dever & Alvis both stated they had "proof" of her direct descent from Anneke Webber Jans Bogardus (New Amsterdam Colony, 1638) & gave me the sketchy chart of:

Deborah BURGES d/o John/Jonathan & Mary (VAN NOTE) BURGES
Mary VAN NOTE d/o William & Mary Anna (DRAKE) VAN NOTE
Mary Anna DRAKE d/o John /Johannes & Magdalena (BROUWER) DRAKE/DRAAK
Magdalena BROUWER d/o Jacobus Adam & Anna (BOGARDUS) BROUWER It is this generation which allegedly moved to NJ

Here the line gets really sticky - since NOTHING is documented, and the BROWER/BOGARDUS Family Assoc. says the marriage of Magdalena to John Drake never took place! The D-A data says it occured in the Long Island (Kings Co.) NY Dutch Reformed Church on 29 Jun 1718 or 1723, then they moved to NJ..

Sounds simple enough to prove, since the DRC kept extensive records. Sorry, but no one can find this record !

But, as the research progresses, I have formed a working theory (after reading the LIPPINCOTT book). I had always been bothered by a time-gap, between Deborah BURGES (b. 1781) and her "ancestress" who had a 1704 birthdate. Perhaps Deborah WAS NOT the great-grandaughter, but a GRAND daughter.. or, the Anneke Jans Bogardus connection occured through Jacob's LIPPINCOTT direct line.

Jacobus & Anna (BOGARDUS) had 9 children, including Magdalena; they also had a son, Adam. My initial data only revealed his second wife, the 1) was always a " ? ". The recent data from the BBFA says his first wife was Deborah ALLEN & the LIPPINCOTT book has a lot of ALLEN's who married into the LIPPINCOTT families in NJ.

Final item - and one so far off-the-wall that I am almost ashamed to put it in writing:
My grandmother (Louisa May LIPPINCOTT) died when I was 4 years old, but I've discovered her habit of naming children pulled the name ALLEN LAWRENCE BIDWELL for her first son. Lawrence came from the father of RAWLEY BIDWELL, Al's grandfather. ALLEN might have been taken from the close ties of the LIPPINCOTT families of the area. Of course, it also could have been for ALLEN county, but Al was born in Marysville, Union County ! My head spineth around at the possibilities !
Let's leave that puzzle for future research !

I notice in your Champaign Chart that the data on Sarah Line is missing. She's in the History of Shelby Co, Ohio, Sutton 1883, 2nd Ed 1968 by SCHS, on pages 201, 203, 206 & 313. G. W. appears on pages 201, 202 (not listed in index) and 203. Jacob & Deborah (Burges) LIPPINCOTT, his parents, aren't in the index, but appears on 201. Both Jacob & Deborah are buried in Shelby Co - originally in the Hardin Cem., but moved to Graceland in Sidney, after the Hardin Cem. was vandalized many years ago. I have found at least Deborah's (maybe Jacob's) tombstone at Graceland. Never took a photo, so I'll be sure to get them this trip & share in next letter.

I leave tonight for Sidney, OH, where I will spend the next two weeks visiting with my Mother, and doing limited research at the Public Library. (I am grateful they are "genealogist friendly", since so many libraries treat us as outcastes!) I also will run up to Wapak and down to Troy for day-trips. Mom & I return to AZ on Wed. the 27th of Oct. If you can add anything to the enclosed data, or steer me to local research, please reply to my Mom's address until 10/27.

Turning back to our Champaign connections:

I have a major problem on a pioneer family in that area, and NO ONE can seem to help me. I would have thought someone, perhaps Warren Everhart, would have written about these very early families, but apparently not.

Lt. Col. John GUTRIDGE/Gutteridge and his wife, Elizabeth TURNER, led their large family, and many other "shirt-tail" relatives from the PA/MD/VA border into KY, settling in Maysville, Mason Co, KY (Orig. was the Town of Washington Co, Bourbon Co, VA). He is documented there (with Simon Kenton and Daniel Boone) on 22 Aug 1786 when they petitioned the VA Legislature to become a separate Co.

In 1787, he is listed as a resident and taxed person living in the area "north of Main Licking" which was within the Bourbon Co, VA boundaries.

By 1800, per a first-person account of his son, Aaron GUTTERIDGE (CCGS:Atrim), they moved across the Ohio River into Adams Co, settling near "Fishing Gut". So far, so good - although I can't get a bit of data from Adams/Brown Co. on this.

Next, they moved - enmass, as they were a very large extended family, into Champaign Co. They settled near the area of the Kingscreek Baptist Church, since John & his son, Rev. John, were some of the founders. PROBLEM: There are NO Land, Estate or religious records anywhere ! Other than Aaron Gutteridge, none of the family is buried/marked in the Kingscreek Baptist Churchyard, nor are there any records of their burial within Champaign Co.

RELATED FAMILY SURNAMES: TURNER, SLAUGHTER, LOWRY, CURRY, TENNY, McMEANS. There are TURNERS buried at Kingscreek, and I think they're part of Elizabeth's family - but again, NO RECORDS !

We know that some of the children were married in Champaign Co, since I've found some of the Marraige Certs. This includes John & Elizabeth's son, Moses GUTTERIDGE, who married Margaret SLAUGHTER on 12 Jan 1814. They/He appears in the 1820 Champaign Co. Census, I can't find him in the 1830 Census, and he died ca 1838. She died ca 1833.

On 18 May 1837, their daughter Sarah GUTTERIDGE married Josiah BIDWELL in Champaign Co., and they moved to New Hampshire, Goshen Twp, Allen/Auglaize Co. where his family had located. They're accounted for, from there.

Another positive note came with the Champaign Co issue - they announce a book, recently received on the SLAUGHTER-PRICE family. This may contain clues on Margaret's family. It's on my "agenda" if I can get the days & hours of the St. Paris Library.

Also on page 83 was data on TURNER court documents in 1844. It establishes an Alexander TURNER, a Rev. War. Soldier or War of 1812 veteran, which could be Elizabeth's brother (or nephew of War of 1812).

If your books, etc. on this area contain any data on the above people, I'd appreciate (and will gladly pay for copies.. Hope to hear from you soon, - maybe you can shed some light on the LIPPINCOTT mystery !

Regards,

Susan

In a text on NJ (which compiler DID NOT photocopy, thus losing a source !), we find records of the estate administration of Elisha MORRIS, first husband of Deborah BURGE.
This record indicates that Deborah was named Admin. of Estate, they had no issue from the marriage. However, it appears that Elisha had been married before, and had a daughter, almost Deborah's age.
Jacob & Deborah probably had ALL their children in NJ. This would include the Lucy, who MAY BE their daughter, and appears, age 19, as a member of the household of their son, John Burge in the Warren Co. 1850 Census. We cannot place Lucy into the family with certainty, but need to watch for more data.
We will give Lucy her own group #, with reservations as to her place.
Jacob & Deborah migrated to OH sometime before 1847. Unknown where they originally settled, but since their sons, Charles H. & John Burge married (1839 & 1848) in Warren Co, OH, it is reasonable to assume the parents were also residents of that area.
Later, they settled in Shelby Co, where Jacob d. in 1857. Deborah survived Jacob, dying in 1873.

NOTES (Continued)

Birth dates used for Daniel & Mary Ellen Dunham - Lippincott taken from tombstones since trad. dates cannot be documented.
"PERRY TOWNSHIP 1832-1976, East Libery, Ohio"
Published by Press Print Rockford, OH as a Bicentennial Committee work.
Delaware Co., OH Marriage Book 4, pg 427
Logan Co. Court Records: Estate of Daniel & Birth rec. of Cora Ruth.

Daniel was the owner of a Livery Stable in East Liberty, Perry Twnsp., Logan Co., OH. Compiler is researching dates; Perry township book shows photos of Livery Stable. Daniel was also the first rural mail carrier out of East Liberty.

He was born in Franklin, Warren Co., OH., but we are unable to trace family migration, since his Father & Grandparents came from NJ, were in Warren Co, OH. (where his mother was born), then his parents d. in Logan Co, OH.

Grandmother Sarah's brother, Daniel Mullison, ran a livery stable in the Warren Co. 1850 Census (Franklin, Franklin Twnp.), which may account for Daniels final occupation.

1875 Delaware Co. resident
1880 Census "sells medicines"

It is not known of any migration patterns, although there (un documented) is tradition that daughter, Louisa May was born in Cheshire (Delaware Co.) OH; his wife was from Cheshire, Delaware Co., OH,(where Daniel and Mary Ellen were married.)

Franklin, OH is south of Dayton, and Cheshire, OH is north of Columbus; this is quite a distance to travel unless he met Mary Ellen while visiting or working in the area. There is no indication that she had any relatives or reason to have been in the Franklin, OH area; it is deductive to place HIM into her locale, rather than her into his.

It was stated by RLN that her brother, Charles Zenas "was unmarried".. The assumption was that he had never married, but copy of obit from LCGS records reveal that he d. in Zepherville, FL near the obit date of 27 MAR 1941. He was survived by a son, Carl.

Copy of Estate documents for Daniel are on file with compiler. Among items: Owned Lot # 47 ($ 140.00) & 48 ($1,210.00) in East
Liberty, OH.: U. S. Savings Bonds valued at $270.66 &
$174.80: Sale of farm in Harrison Twnsp: $1,200.00
Check in Hamilton Bank: $53.34; Certificate of deposit $500.00.

Goods & Chattel: $133.50 (comprised of Buggy @ $25.00, Sled runner @ $2.00, Single Harness @ $2.00, Double driving Harness @ $10.00, 3 strands of sleigh bells @ $1.50, Mail Wagon @ $5.00, Sample Wagon @ $5.00, Open Buggy @ $1.00, 3 Seated Carriage @ $5.00, Automobile @ $75.00 & 2 Buggy (unknown) @ $2.00. Total balance of Estate: $3,682.30. Funeral expenses: $240., $10., $20. : Paid car fare for Charles: $40.00 Distribution to children: Charles Z., "Louis N. " Bidwell, Nellie Shellenbarger, Edythe Lippincott, Ruth Noble, $87.88 each, (and Ruth ended up with all the family mementoes); Children of deceased daughter, Blance Ethel Orahood: Nellie Marie, Charles L., Frank Jacob & Ruth Nadine Orahood, $21.97 each.

DUNHAM, Mary Ellen (#200) Sources: Oral traditions (containing errors) from Ruth LIPPINCOTT Noble; DCGS, BOUIC, DCMR and census data.

Mary Ellen was placed under the guardianship of Ruben D. Vining on Aug 17 1864, (after her Mother re-married to Oscar DUNHAM.) The guardians then ap- plied for a Civil War pension for Mary Ellen, since her mother had lost hers by re-marrying. At the time the pension was requested, the guardians state that Mary Ellen is currently living with her Grandmother, ELIZABETH DAY in Jay CO, IN.

This cannot be a DUNHAM grandmother, since Zenas' mother, Irena was deceased; it must have been the mother of Mary MAY-DUNHAM-DUNHAM. All efforts to locate an Elizabeth MAY in census records of Delaware Co. have been negative. Note: Delaware Co. OH Marriage records show a Elizabeth MAY married to an Issac DAY on 23 Aug 1860. Mary Ellen does not appear in the 1870 Jay Co. IN census with her grandmother, indicating that she was back in Delaware Co. by that time. She would be 12 years old. However, the 1870 cenus needs to be re-checked to see if she appears with her mother & step father, back in Delaware Co.

Dear Lucille,

I finally got over to St. Paris yesterday. Now I know what the hours for the library are & what they have there. The Champaign County Genealogical Society had donated some of their material to the St. Paris Library & I wanted to see what it was.

They have a surname file. I don't know if it has been taken from members of their Gen. Soc. or from names visiting researchers have signed in & listed as researching these names. There is no date to tell us when the info was gotten. The only one reseaching Lippincott was: Willie Coldwell or Caldwell (hard to tell if the writing was of an "a" or "o")

At least it should be someone interested in Lippencott families who had been in Champaign Co., OH.

Different information has been copied and made into books. They have books of Marriage Records and Census Records. As a start, I copied what they had on Lippencott (& various spellings) in the 1850 & 1860 census, and am enclosing those.

They have a number of family histories that people have put together & donated, but none on Lippencott.

Is there anything specific you would like me to look for there?

Sincerely,

Betty

Dear Lucille,

Thanks for your data on the LIPPINCOTT family. I, too have the 1883 Shelby Co. book, and have pulled the "sibling" LIPPINCOTT's from it.

Enclosed is my current data on this family; I am absolutely stuck on the parents of Jacob LIPPINCOTT and the data on Deborah BURGE Morris is not much better. There are a few correspondents helping on that problem, and IF anything turns up, you'll be one of the first to hear from me !

I have sent too much "unproven" data to others in the past, and have taken a firm vow to stop the practice. I can't keep up with the regular correspondence, much less trying to correct my past sins !

Hope this helps you move along on your husbands line.

Does he have any relatives still in the Sidney/Shelby Co. area ? My mother & sister still live there, and I graduated from Sidney High School - perhaps know some of his "kin".

Thanks for your response.

Sincerely,

Susan

Dear Susan,

I think I may have put your letter in the file with out writing to you. If I did not respond ,please accept my apology.

This new machine is giving me problems so hang in there & I may get some of this right.

I really have nothing on my husbands Lippincott or Line families. The only thing I am sure of is that she married my husbands g.grandfather. See enclosed sheet. Hope you can find something in your papers.

I do have the original copy of the 1883 History of Shelby Co.Ohio, Illustrated,so I have pulled everything from it.

Catherine's family came from around New Paris,Ohio and related to the Johnson's and a Creetor family. Roma,Keith and another unknown sister were Creetors. It's so strange that I can't find out about her but have been unable to go to Sidney latley to the library.I do belong to Shelby, Champaign,Crawford, Stark and Hamilton County Gen. Soc.'s.

Sure hope you are having good hunting on you families.Some of mine were very easy but now I tend to get discouraged like now on these to lines. Oh,well, it will all come together sooner or later.

Happy Hunting:

Lucy

YOUR FAMILY TREE

WHERE DO YOU BEGIN? Begin with yourself. Always proceed from the present to the past. Record your name, place and date of birth; marriage and residence. Now search out and record the same type of vital record information about your parents, then your grandparents, and so on through as many generations as possible.

Start gathering your information by interviewing older living members of your family. Family documents, certificates, licenses, Bible records, scrapbooks, and photo albums can be very helpful. The library will have many sources of data including genealogies, census records, directories, and military records.

LOCATING BOOKS. Most of the books in the collection are located in closed stacks, though some statewide finding aids, vital records, and other references are available for browsing on the open shelves in the reading room. You can identify the books you would like to use by checking the card catalog under the author, subject, or title of the book. Subjects would include the name of the family (e.g. MARTIN FAMILY), or the name of a geographic area, followed by a subject heading (e.g. AUGUSTA CO., VIRGINIA. BIOGRAPHY.) Please fill out a request slip for each book you would like to use and the books will be brought to your seat in a few minutes by the paging staff.

GENEALOGY SUBJECT HEADINGS--SOME PLACES TO LOOK IN THE CATALOG:

Atlases	Genealogy	Obituaries
Bible Records	History	Passenger Lists
Biography	Land Records	Pensions
Cemeteries	Maps	Probate Records
Census	Marriage Licenses	Registers of Births, etc.
Church History	Military Records
Colleges	Names, Geographical	Schools
Court Records	Names, Personal	Tax Records
Deeds	Naturalization Records	Voting Registers
Gazetteers	Newspapers	Wills

LOCATING MICROTEXT. Microtext records are cataloged separately in the microtext reading room. Check the microtext catalog under the appropriate subject to get the roll number of the film you would like to use. You may get the microtext yourself, one item at a time. Please place all used microtext on the return cart for refiling by the staff. Aside from drawers marked census, city directories, military records, and passenger lists, be sure to check the lower half of the microtext catalog under the name of the state for county histories, vital records, or other courthouse records available only on microtext.

LOCATING PERIODICALS. Most genealogy periodicals are filed alphabetically by title in the open stacks of the department. Check the PERiodical Source Index (PERSI) on the reference shelves under the name of the family or the name of the state and county for a list of relevant articles.

Dear Lucille,

I was glad to receive the 5-Gen charts from you. Have been doing a little research on the info you sent & want to pass along to you what I have:

LIPPENCOTT/LIPPINCOTT - According to the article in Sutton's History of Shelby Co., OH - G.W. Lippincott did not have a daughter named Catherine. In looking at back issues of SHELBYANA found #10 had extra info from marriage records & Catherine's parents were Jacde? & Deborah. The ladies reading the original microfilm of these marriages were very capable at it but the microfilm was most likely of poor quality as were the original record the microfilm was copied from. My first thought was that the first name might be Jacob.

From the book MEMORIAL RECORDS OF SHELBY COUNTY, OHIO 1819-1975 I found a burial for Deborah & one for a Jacob who would have been close in age.

DEBORAH LIPPENCOTT b Monmouth Co, NY 08-22-1781
d Perry Tp, Shelby Co, OH 01-02-1873 age 91
Graceland Cemetery Lot 65 Section 1

JACOB LIPPINCOTT d June 1, 1857 age 71y 2m 5d
Graceland Cemetery in Pioneer Section

Thought it might be interesting to see who else was buried in Lot 65 Sec 1 so looked through the 1st 40 pages of the book & don't know if this means anything to you or not - possibly could have been relatives (married grdau? or something like that) or perhaps no relation at all --- but buried in 65-1

MARY BARBER b _____ _____ d Sidney 01-__-1881
reinterred from another cemetery 01-29-1881
JAMES S. BARBER b Sidney 12-11-1881 d 02-06-1882 age 1mo
CHARLES DANIEL BARBER b Sidney 11-__-1885 d 12-20-1887 age 1yr body removed to Post Town, Butler Co, OH

Am also sending you pages from the MARRIAGE RECORDS books for Lippencott. These are the listings for males & have added the one for Endora who might be the Dora listed in Sutton's history as dau of Joseph GREEN & the Mattie might be Martha GREEN.

Boy! I really slipped from the LIPPENCOTT to the GREEN, didn't I.

Anyway, Some info on both is enclosed.

Do you have family group sheets for Joseph Green & his children? If so, would you send a copy of those - will see what you have & if anything more is available here.

So far I don't see any connection to my Lippencott's that married into the Babcock family, who married into the Davis family.

Am especially interested in the Martha Bevins who married Malen Elwell. I had seen the bit of info in the Sutton history & often wondered about her. She was not listed as a child of our John Bevans when he died. So often in those early days as soon as someone in the family got settled in a new area, others, uncles, brothers, cousins, etc. soon came to the same area. This could so easily have happened.

John Bevans went to Highland Co., Ohio in 1815-1817 and Martha's parents went to Highland in 1825. Interesting!!

Do you have any other info at all on the Bevans?

We are going to be gone on a little vacation for a couple weeks in May. So in June I will plan to do some more work on the Bevans/ Beavans/Bivens/ etc. family.

St. Paris is in Champaign Co. If I get to the St. Paris Library, as I've been planning to for some time, will see if I can find anything for you on the Lippencott line.

Will look forward to hearing from you. Have a good summer!

Sincerely,

Dear Lucy,

I think we may be cousins....back a few generations ! Enclosed is some LIPPINCOTT information; I have more on the BURGE inter-relationship to Anneke Jans of New Amsterdam, but have recently been advised that there is no proof of this family tie. It stems from tradition, and some documentation I received in my early years of genealogy - back when I wasn't too good about keeping sources, etc. Please use this with a great deal of caution ! I have entered the data into my Roots 3 program as "uncertain".

I have a certified copy of the marriage certificate of Deborah BURGE to her 2nd husband, Jacob LIPPINCOTT. An inquiry to someone professing access to all NJ county records just revealed that my "marriage date" is actually the date recorded, and that there is no record of Deborah's first marriage to Elisha Morris on 31 Dec 1800. Ms. Davis indicates that Elisha married an Elizabeth Smith in 1798. This doesn't mean he didn't marry 2nd, Deborah BURGE, then die, leaving her a widow to marry Jacob LIPPINCOTT on 26 Jan 1807, in Monmouth Co., NJ.

G. W. LIPPINCOTT (the Shelby Co. group) married Sarah J. Line in 1856. Your Catherine (who married William GREEN) is probably their child (birth date c 1857, would make Catherine a little young to be of "marrying age" in 1871, but not impossible).

Check out the data enclosed and let me know; I have some data in a large Shelby Co. History which pertains to the Shelby Co. LIPPINCOTT family. My mother & sister still live in Shelby Co, OH and I knew a few of the older descendants of this line many years ago. One was our family insurance agent. This was way befofe I ever got interested in tracing the family, so of course, didn't ask any questions. "Lippy" knew all about the family, and knew that my LIPPINCOTT line connected with his. Since he was old enough to be my grandfather, I paid about as much attention to him as I did my grandparents - when you're 16 years old, these things don't seem to be important ! Now, I would dearly love to sit and talk to him !

Thanks for the letter...please respond.

P.S. Send me ALL your Shelby Co. lines if you do not have the data from book. (some copies encl)

Uri M. Stiles.

Three brothers by the name of Stiles came from England to America as early as 1750. One of them located in New Hampshire, one went to the Carolinas, and one to New Jersey. The direct ancestors of Uri M. settled in New Hampshire. It was here that Asel Stiles, the father of the above, was born in 1783, and lived there until manhood, at which time he went to New York State, where he married Urana Johnston in 1805. In 1813 they removed to Ohio, and located in Greene County, where they lived until 1832, when they removed to Logan County. Their family at that time consisted of father, mother, and eight children. It was here that Uri was brought when but a few months old. Here he lived, and was educated in the common schools of the neighborhood. He remained with his parents while they lived. His father died in 1859; his mother in 1862. On December 24, 1862, he married Rachel A. Wilkinson, and the following year settled in Perry Township, on the same section settled on by the grandfather of Mrs. Stiles in 1818. Mr. Stiles remained on this place until 1878, when he removed to his new home in Pemberton, where he has built a fine brick dwelling, one of the best in the township. Mrs. Stiles died January 14, 1881, leaving two children, viz., Ann U., born 1868, and Stella M., born 1877.

There are but few who have had more ancestors who have taken an important part in the freedom of our country from the British yoke than did the ancestors of Mr. Stiles. His grandfather Stiles served five years in the army of the Revolution. His grandfather Johnston, together with seven of his brothers, also served throughout the war. One of them was killed at the battle of Bennington. They were present at the surrender of Burgoyne. Also Mr. Johnston was by the side of Gen. Washington when the news was brought to him of Benedict Arnold's treason.

G. W. Lippincott

was born in the State of New Jersey in 1826. His parents were Jacob Lippincott and Debro Burge Lippincott. He came to Shelby County in 1847, and married Sarah J. Line in 1856. They have raised a family of five children, viz., James, John, Edward, William, and Franklin.

Emery F. Marrs

was born in Illinois in 1855; came with his father, William Marrs, to Shelby County in 1860. In 1879 he married Jane Key. From this union they have two children, Myrtle D., born 1880, and Harry Lee, born 1881.

Isaiah W. Staley.

About the year 1750 Conrad Staley, a German by birth, emigrated to America, and located in the colony of Pennsylvania near Lancaster. It was here, in the year 1762, that John Staley, the father of the subject of our sketch, was born. About 1780 he went to North Carolina, and a few years afterward married Mary Smith, and had a family of fourteen children, eleven of whom lived to grow up to manhood and womanhood. Isaiah W. was the twelfth child, and was born March 8, 1808. He lived with his father till he was eighteen years of age. His father was a blacksmith by trade. Isaiah learned the trade with his father. At the age of eighteen his father gave him his time. He then started out to travel and see the country. He spent five years travelling from place to place. He would stop and work at his trade a short time in a place, then start again and travel until his means were nearly exhausted, then stop and work awhile. In this manner he did until he had travelled over North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio, without any object in view except to see the country. As early as 1827 he visited his relatives in Shelby County. He finally in 1832 brought up in Little York, Montgomery County, where he formed the acquaintance of Susan Hutchins, to whom he was married the same year. At the time of his marriage he had but $40; with this he started shop, and worked a short time until ague and sore eyes compelled him to quit work. By the time he was able to work again he found himself $85 in debt, and not a dollar to pay with. He went to work again as soon as able and paid his indebtedness, and worked on until he had saved $100. With this money he took his wife and two children to Allen County, Ohio, near Fort Amanda, and entered eighty acres of land. This was in February, 1836. They soon got tired of their home in the woods, and

When Mr. J. and his wife moved to the county they brought the whole of their effects, together with his blacksmith tools, in a two-horse wagon. His cash capital was three dollars and a half to commence business on. At that time there was very little money in circulation. He received in exchange for his labor, corn, venison, saw-logs, etc. The corn and produce he shipped by canal to Cincinnati to get the cash with which to buy iron. He ironed the first broad wheeled wagon ever ironed in the county.

In short, to show what industry and economy will do, he commenced with three dollars and a half, worked at smithing about ten years, and quit with between five and six thousand dollars, all made at the anvil, and by buying and selling land. In 1854 he moved to Pemberton, and worked a short time at his trade, then, the same year, he bought his present home in section 9, where he has resided since that time. Mrs. Johnston died in 1876. They have had two children, Lewis M. and Thomas J.

Mr. Johnston has filled the offices of township trustee, township clerk, and director of county infirmary. His father and grandfather were both in the war of 1812, his father having been wounded in battle. The Merandas, the ancestors of Mr. Johnston's mother, were of Irish and Scotch descent. We first find them after coming to this country located in Kentucky, where Mr. Johnston's mother was born. They lived in Kentucky during the Indian troubles along the Ohio River. Grandfather Meranda had a sister who was scalped by the Indians, and lived for several days afterwards. The settlers at that time never thought of leaving their houses without their rifle, not knowing what minute they would be attacked by some lurking Indian.

One time Mr. Meranda saw two Indians making for his house. He ran to the house ahead of them, and shot one of then; the other fled. Another time, while passing through the woods, he heard a noise; upon investigation he discovered an Indian in a tree top pulling bark. It took him but a moment to bring his rifle to bear upon him and fire. The Indian fell, when Mr. M. discovered that another Indian was at the foot of the tree; but he hastily fled. Prior to Ohio becoming a State the Merandas settled in Clarke County near Springfield, Ohio.

G. W. Lippincott

was born in New Jersey in 1826, came to Shelby County in 1847, and married Sarah J. Line in 1856. Mrs. Lippincott is a daughter of John Line and the old lady who was so foully murdered by David Shank. They have raised a family of five children, as follows: James, born 1861; John, born 1864; Edward, born 1866; William, born 1868; and Franklin, born 1874.

George Sturm.

The first we can learn of the Sturms is that in 1757 Henry Sturm was born in Virginia, and came to Ohio, and located in Clarke County; but the time is not known, but was prior to the war of 1812, for he had three sons in the army who went from Clarke County. He was married to Elizabeth Weaver, and had a family of fourteen children. George and John, twin brothers, were the youngest of the family, and were born in Clarke County, January 31, 1813.

In August or September, 1814, Henry Sturm and his family moved to what is now Shelby County, and located in Green Township. The nearest white settler to them at that time was David Henry, nearly six miles distant, and A. Wilkinson in Champaign County, six miles distant. Here in the woods George Sturm was raised without the privilege of schools, the Indians being far more numerous in those days than the whites. George and John at the death of their father in 1832 bought the old homestead. This they owned together for a number of years, when George sold his interest to his brother, and removed to Illinois, but remained there only a few months, when he returned and bought the homestead of his wife's father—Isaac Stout—in Perry Township, section 9, where he now resides. He was married to Mary A. Stout in 1833. They have raised a family of five children, Matilda, Rebecca, Martha, Hannah E., and Rachel A. Isaac Stout located in Perry in 1831. Mr. Sturm has retired from labor, being afflicted with a nervousness that prevents him from labor. His wife also has been a sufferer for years, and is compelled to walk with crutches. Mr. Sturm has been living in the county sixty-eight years.

and two of his brothers were in the war of 1812.

Charles Johnston was said to have been the first white boy that lived on the banks of Mosquito Creek. An incident is related of Silas Johnston and two of his sons who came to the head-waters of Mosquito Creek to build a cabin previous to their moving to their land. They were camped near where they purposed building their cabin. There was an Indian camp close by. One evening as they were sitting around their camp fire, a couple of Indians came to their camp. They were drunk and became quarrelsome. Johnston's gun stood beside a tree close by. One of the Indians started to get the gun, but Johnston anticipated him and got the gun first, drew up to shoot the Indian, but changed his mind and hit him with the gun and knocked him down. The Indians then left, but Johnston knew they would soon return with others; so they put out their fire and went and secreted themselves in the woods elsewhere until morning. They then returned to Kentucky and remained there some nine months, when they again returned to their home in the woods. Charles Johnston was one of the early Commissioners of Shelby County. He continued to reside on his farm until about 1863, when he moved to Pemberton, where he resided until his death in 1865.

James Johnston was born in Perry Township in 1826, on the place entered by his father, Charles Johnston. His father's family consisted of fourteen children, twelve of whom were born in Perry Township. In 1848 he married Miss Lephia Newman. By this union they have had three children, two only now living, viz., Nancy J. and Charles W. Mr. Johnston has lived in Perry Township fifty-six years, never having had a home anywhere else. He now resides on section 15, where he has a fine farm with good improvements. He commenced for himself when he was nineteen years of age. He bought his time of his father, agreeing to pay him one hundred and fifty dollars. The first money he earned for himself was by scoring timber at forty cents per day; the next was to work for ten dollars per month. In this way he made his start, working by the day and month until after he married, when he still worked at fifty cents per day for furniture to keep house with. In this manner he kept on until he had saved enough to buy forty acres of land. From this small beginning he has now got a comfortable home of 140 acres of well improved land.

and wife came to Perry Township in 1831 or 1832. Mr. Line died in 1846, leaving a wife and six children, whom she raised to become men and women. By her own efforts she supported them while young. George, the oldest son, entered the army and died at Bermuda Hundred in 1864. The second son remained at home and died. The third son, Martin, entered the regular army in 1863, served to the close of the war, was with Sherman in his march to the sea, returned home, and died of consumption. Of the three daughters only two are living, Mrs. Lippincott and Ann. Mrs. Line, the mother of the above family, after raising them and devoting her life for their comfort, and finally seeing them, all but two, taken from her—she and her youngest daughter were living by themselves—on the 18th day of June, 1880, in her sixty-ninth year, she went to pay a neighbor a visit. After being in the neighbor's house a short time—she was seated on a chair—when David Shank, a blacksmith of Pt. Jefferson, entered the house. There was no one about the house except Mrs. Inskip, the lady of the house, and her daughter and a child. When the assassin entered the house and saw the old lady sitting there, he said, "What are you doing here?" and ordered her out of the house, and immediately took hold of the chair and upset her on the floor. Mrs. Inskip picked up a stick to drive him away: he grabbed the stick, took it from her; she then ran out of the house, he after her; the old lady then followed out of the door. The villain seeing her, picked up a wash-tub and knocked her down with it; then picked up a piece of fence rail and beat out her brains, mashing her face and killing her instantly. He then ran after Mrs. Inskip, who was running for help. Mr. Lippincott and his son, who happened to be working close by, heard the screams and came just in time to save her. The murderer then ran away, was followed by parties who overtook him at the river, was taken to prison, tried, and found guilty of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to the penitentiary for life.

THE HETZLER FAMILY.

Jacob Hetzler was born in Berks County, Pennsylvania, and married there near the close of the eighteenth century, and shortly afterwards started for the West. At Pittsburgh they put their effects on a flat boat, and floated down the Ohio River, and landed at Cincinnati. The city at that time only contained a few houses. When Mr. H. started for the West, he took with him a barrel of apples. From the seeds of these apples some of the first orchards in Ohio were started. Some of the trees grown from these seeds are still standing and bearing fruit. Mr. Hetzler raised a family of nine children, seven boys and two girls. They located on a farm in Hamilton County, where they spent the rest of their days. Mr. and Mrs. Hetzler both died here about the same time, aged ninety-three years, and were buried on the farm on which they first settled.

About the year 1811 or 1812 Mr. Hetzler had come to the territory of Miami and Shelby counties and entered five eighty-acre lots of land adjoining each other. Three of them were in Shelby and two in Miami. These lands he gave to his five sons, John, Peter, Jacob, George, and Baltzer. Jacob, George, and Baltzer located in Shelby, the other two in Miami. John, the eldest of these boys, served in the war of 1812, and was a soldier under Gen. Harrison. George, the fourth son, was born in Hamilton County in 1800. He lived at home with his parents until 1823, when he married Nancy Freeman. In 1827 he came with his wife and two children to Shelby County. Like all the early settlers they had nothing to commence with, except strong and willing hands, but by devoting his whole time and attention to the improvement of his land, he soon made of it a model farm, beside adding to it until he had nearly five hundred acres. They raised a family of six children, viz., Moses, Christopher, John F., Hannah, Elizabeth, and Sarah. Mr. Hetzler died in 1875. His widow is still living on the old homestead with her daughter, Mrs. Shell.

Robert Packman was born in Canada in 1857, came to Shelby County in 1878, married Margaret B. Hetzler, a daughter of Moses Hetzler, in 1879. They have born to them one child, Charles F. They reside on the home with Mrs. George Hetzler, the grandmother of Mrs. Packman.

WILLIAM GREEN.

The father of the above—Joseph Green—was born in Massachusetts in 1790. In 1814 he married Rebecca A. Cottle, and the same year they moved to Ohio, and settled in Cincinnati, working for several years at the carpenter trade. Afterward he bought land in the western part of Hamilton County, on to which he moved and remained until 1824, when they removed to Warren County, Ohio, where they remained until 1832, then came to Shelby County, and located in Dinsmore Township, or what is now Dinsmore, as the township was not organized at that time. The first election held in the township was held at his house in the spring of 1833. At the time Mr. Green first came to the county, his family consisted of his wife and six children. That portion of the county was entirely unimproved; their cows had to run in the woods for pasture. It was not long before they discovered that the milk sickness was in the neighborhood. Their cattle and hogs died from the effects of it. Several persons also died of the same, among them were Mrs. Green and two of their daughters. Mr. Green became discouraged, and determined to leave the country. So he returned with the balance of his family to Hamilton County in 1833, where he died in 1834.

WILLIAM GREEN, a son of the above, was born in Hamilton County, Ohio, in 1820, consequently was twelve years of age at the time of their settlement in Shelby County. He returned with his father to Hamilton County, and remained there and in Cincinnati about one year. He then went to Warren County, where he worked by the day and month, getting work as best he could, part of the time getting only four dollars per month. In 1842 he married Miss Phebe Elwell, and immediately returned to Shelby County, where they landed in the fall of 1842, with just one dollar in cash left to commence life with. With this cash capital they made their start, he working by days' work for provision to live on until they could raise some corn and potatoes. From this beginning Mr. Green has made for himself and family a comfortable home. Every dollar of it made by their own hands, except forty acres of wild land. They have raised a family of eleven children, viz., Joseph, Martha, John, William, Charley, Emerson, Albert, George, Dora, Clarence, and Justice. In 1874 Mr. Green sold his farm in Dinsmore, and bought one in Orange, where he now lives rather a retired life, in the enjoyment of the fruit of his past labor. Beside this home farm he owns one of one hundred and sixty acres in Franklin.

Malen Elwell and his wife Martha Bevins, the parents of Mrs. Green, came from Pennsylvania to Highland County, Ohio, in 1825. The Elwells are of German descent; the Bevins of Welsh and Swiss extraction. Mrs. Green was born in Pennsylvania in 1822.

Lucy,

This tradition goes way back...no one can quite locate the origin of this allegation that Wolfert WEBBER & Sarah WEBBER were issue of William. I have done some research on the life of William I and find he was married 4 times - all for very political reasons, but none of the marriages with issue correspond to our ancestors !

My rather irreverent theory is that some village girl found herself "in the family way" TWICE, and managed to blame it on "the KING, passing thru"... or she was the mistress of William I & the children were really his, although illegitimate.

One fanciful account told of Anneke Jans "growing up in the palace, where she had the bad judgement of falling in love and marrying the gardener (Roeloff Jansen).

Politically, William I wanted the Spanish out of the Netherlands (Catholic), so he changed allegiances at every opportunity. Although he was the leader who brought Protestanism to Holland, he was about as moral as an alley cat.

He was murdered at the instigation of the Spanish. Since this was appx. 4 years after Sarah's birth & appx. 2 years after Wolfert's, any child of an "alliance" would have been persona non grata at the new court. William's legitimate issue never inherited the Dutch throne, it eventually went to a line of his brother (or other relative).

Fascinating story-..but we are a long way from ever knowing the truth !

Regards,

Susan

Per the JBFA corr. there is not proof of the ancestry of Mary Anna DRAKE through her alleqd parents. John DRAKE & Maqdalena BROUWER. The JBFA feels that our link to the Anneke Janse-Everardus Bogardus line may be in error. They state that many families were contacted. without definite proof of ancestry, in the early 20th century, to help build a "class action" case to recover original NYC property. SLW will leave the line as originally entered, but with an UNCERTAIN attached to all ancestors in question.

SCGS is especially pleased to be able to use this 10th anniversary issue of SHELBYANA TO present information from Shelby County that you may not have been able to previously find. Such information is "Unrecorded" Documents starting on page 4; Death Records that were not indexed in Book 1, which starts on page 10 & "Missing" Birth Records from Book 2, which starts on page 14. We sincerely hope that you find something you have been searching for in these unusual "FINDS". There would be no better way to celebrate our 10th anniversary than to help our members!

SCGS has obtained 98 original documents that had been left at the Recorder's Office Shelby County, Ohio 1833-1910 to be recorded. However, these documents were NOT recorded for various reasons. Some notations found on them are: "fee not paid", "can't transfer" and one document has no signatures. Some are entirely handwritten and some are preprinted forms with handwriting only in the spaces that are provided.

Although these documents were identified as "unrecorded" it is entirely possible that at some point in time another such document was made and recorded. (We have NOT checked.) It is also possible that the information NEVER was recorded and that this information could be of extreme importance to some of our members.

Due to the latter possibility, we will endeavor to publish in this list all genealogical information possible from these documents, so as to be of help to more people. Any information not in Shelby County, Ohio is so noted.

The "From" column is the person/s whose signature/s appears on the document, which is of added interest. The documents listed are available from SCGS by sending SASE. (Donation of $1.00 for handling would be appreciated.) SASE will hold 2 documents without additional postage. Order from editor: Betty Bevans; 17755 St Rt 47; Sidney OH 45365 & make checks payable to Shelby County Genealogical Society. Order by using name shown in "From" column along with year & alpha code that follows the year. (Example: First document listed - Ailes, Eli V. & Julian 1854 WD-N.) Most documents are in good condition, a few are not & will be sent as is.

All orders will be held until February 15, 1986 before documents are sent. Orders will be filled with priority given to SCGS members & earliest postmark. After February 15, 1986 orders will be filled on an as-received basis. Money will be returned on any order unable to be filled due to a previous order for the same document.

Alpha code shown after the year document was made indicates the type of document, with the last letter "N" showing document was not recorded: A-N=Assignment; B-N=Bill; C-N=Contract; COJ-N= Certificate of Justice; D-N=Deed; M-N=Mortgage; ME-N=Memorandum; N-N=Note; P-N=Partition; POA-N=Power of Attorney; QCD-N=Quit Claim Deed; R-N=Realease; RA-N=Rent Agreement; ROM-N=Release of Mortgage & SD-N=Sheriff's Deed.

STRAYER History of DeGraff 1850 - 1950

chapter to the Bee Line, and we quote:

"The B. & I. was incorporated February 25, 1848, just eight days later than the Indianapolis & Bellefontaine, to build from a junction with that road to the C. C. & C. at Galion. Hugh Thompson, an attorney of Sidney, was elected president and the first corporation meeting was held in his office. For sometime thereafter, the board met any, and everywhere. Some minutes are headed "Logansville, John Dickson House." (We are told this is the home of the late Mrs. Monta DeWeese Dill in Logansville). Others were held at Sidney Court House, sometimes they were at Quincy, at Bellefontaine, at a law office in Cleveland and finally at Marion, where they had settled down and established headquarters. Construction did not begin until 1851 and the rails did not enter Union City until 1853. In 1863 the Bellefontaine & Indiana's entire property was mortgaged to Amasa Stone, Jr., as security for $791,000 in bonds, it was given a new name, "The Bellefontaine Railroad," and from here comes the origin of the famous nickname. Bellefontaine Railroad was too much of a mouthful for railroad men and they shortened it to B. Line. Quite naturally "B" suggested Bee, and Bee Line became an advertised boast of the road's directors. In January 1868, the C. C. & C. increased its capital stock to $12,000,000 and cut a $1,500,000 melon to win the stockholders' approval to reorganize and take in Bellefontaine. This was done and on May 16, 1868, a new corporation emerged—the Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati & Indianapolis, thenceforth for 21 years to be famous as the Bee Line.—Fern Burdette, DeGraff Journal, dated June 23, 1949, George Himes, Editor.

Early History from Pen of DeGraff's First Baby

"Miss Carrie Galer brought us a DeGraff Journal dated June 7, 1929 which contained a long article about the early days in DeGraff, written by C. S. Lippincott, of Marion, who was "DeGraff's first baby." Since DeGraff seems to be "history conscious" we are taking the liberty of publishing the greater part of the letter, which tells of early DeGraff as Mr. Lippincott remembered it. Miss Mary Pond, now Mrs. W. C. Vetterling, of Cleveland, was editor of The Journal at that time."—George N. Himes, Editor DeGraff Journal, dated March 31, 1949.

MR. LIPPINCOTT'S LETTER

I am giving you some ancient history of DeGraff as I remember it from my youth up to 1878. I was the first baby to be brought into town, being born February 20, 1851. I arrived in DeGraff when I was three or four months old. The first school I attended in DeGraff was a one-story frame building on the south side of Mill Street, just west of the Lewis Taylor property, A. J. Longfellow (called Jack) being the first teacher.

Some of the first scholars were: Harrison, Thomas, and Newt Smith, James and Frank Murphy, and others. The next school I attended was the Galbreath, the scholars being Jacob Huber, Daniel Spellman, Amanda Harbor, Nancy and Ellen Lippincott, Andy and Will Huber, William and Gilbert Galbreath, myself and others.

The next was a one story frame that stood on Race Street, where the Joseph Weller property now stands. The teachers were Maggie Runyon, Daniel Spellman, Prof. Griffin, Amanda Harbor, Rev. Galbreath, and David Moury. The scholars were: Charles and Adelaide Taylor, William and Gilbert Galbreath, David Ghaney, Margaret Ghaney, John and Matty Pegan, Anna Hopkins, Thomas Cookston, Joe Cookston, myself and others.

School was held in the Town Hall while the first brick building was being built. The first professor in this school was David Moury, who was followed by Professor Wagner. Among the older scholars were: Anna Hopkins, Turner Stewart, Charles, Adelaide, and Caroline Taylor, Dr. M. A. Koogler, Dr. Warnick Hamer, Dr. John Wolfe, Benjamin Albach, Thomas and Joe Cookston, John Longfellow, McCawley brothers, Rairdon brothers, Wm. Boyer, Wm. Kinsinger, my brother Samuel, myself and others.

The first doctor in DeGraff, as I recollect, was Dr. R. C. Gilcrest, and what, recalls him to my recollection, is the fact that, they said he was unfortunate with horses, all of them dying. Uncle Billy Boggs brought him a mule which he rode. Dr. Gilcrest and Dr. Galer practiced medicine in partnership for a time. Another early doctor was Dr. Hance, who rode horseback and kept a supply of drugs.

The first church built in town was built by the Presbyterians and was occupied jointly by them and the Baptists for a time. The first Presbyterian pastor was Rev. Galbreath, and the first Baptist Pastor was Rev. Bower. Among the members of the Presbyterian Church were the Sam and Andy Huston families, the Henry Huling family, the Matthias Koogler family, and others.

Some of the members of the Baptist Church were: Evan Schooler, Frederick Custenborder, A. J. Lippincott, Samuel Lippincott, Sr., and their families. The Baptists later on built a brick church, and Rev. A. J. Wiant was their pastor.

The Methodists built a frame church which was later destroyed by the cyclone, and Rev. Leach was their first pastor. The church was constructed by John and Elzy Pegan, the latter falling from the upper joists to the lower and dying as a result of the accident. Some of the families I remember were the Charles Cookstons, the Jerry Spellmans, Dr. Gilcrest, Squire Smith, the Pools, and others.

The first hotel was built and operated by Joseph Parks. He leased or sold it to Henry Clay Scott, who later enlisted in the army, and the hotel was taken over by Frank Bull. The first grist mill was owned and operated by William Boggs, later by Mr. Koch, then by Jesse and Frank Valentine, then by Schriver and Neer. They also operated a portable saw mill. The next saw mill was owned by Cyrus Humphreys, and the next one by George Lippincott and Henry Weller. The first newspaper was published by Will Marion, who was the husband of Annie Youngman. The first music was furnished in the village by an orchestra composed of Fisher, the barber, Frank Fisher, his son; John Pegan, and myself. Later they organized a brass band.

I well remember the cyclone of 1872 which first struck the mill, taking off the roof and turning it on its foundation, unroofing numerous houses, some of them being torn down and destroyed. One particular happening, I remember it did, was to take a valuable imported horse from the ground floor of a barn and deposit him in the haymow, taking the roof off the barn.

On seeing the cyclone coming I found I had urgent business north of town, and exceeded all speed records in arriving there. I ran a half mile and stopped at the first house and called the occupants out to witness the storm as it passed over DeGraff.

The first railroad built through DeGraff was the B. & I. R. R. and my father boarded quite a lot of the workmen, and furnished quite a lot of ties. My father, Andrew J. Lippincott, was one of the incorporators of the Village and was elected first Mayor. Frank Johnson was the first Marshall and Newt Castle was the first man arrested. My father was one of the incorporators of the Greenwood Cemetery. The lands for the Greenwood Cemetery were donated by Harriet and Nancy Murphy.

Comments on Article by Chris Lippincott

OUR NOTE:—We appreciated the re-publishing of the C. S. Lippincott article. It ante dates our scrap book by several years. We moved from Allen County to DeGraff in February, 1864, and there our scrap book begins. The Lippincott memories list Margaret Ghaney, as a scholar in her day. We are surprised that she ever attended school. The Morgan Ghaneys lived back of the Joe Weller residence.

The school house Lippincott tells of attending, west of the Lewis Taylor residence, must have been a building just south of the Taylor residence and occupied in our day by Vic Connelly, as a cooper shop. One Saturday afternoon we were playing in the Harris field when word came to us that Vic Connelly had hung himself in his shop. Everybody broke for the scene, but there was no bridge over Bokengehelas Creek and there was high water and the only way to get across, was over a suspended log. Other boys would walk the log, but we kids straddled it and shinned across. Vic, was a prominent Mason, jolly in disposition and well liked. He left two sons, Frank, the older, was in my class in school, became an expert plasterer and moved to Baltimore. Andy, the younger, his mother having died when he was a baby, was taken by the Samuel Boyer family. He learned telegraphy under Emmet Fetterman and became night operator. As he was a jolly fellow the telegraph office was a favorite resort for our evenings. He ultimately moved to Union City, married, and his son George is train dispatcher for the N. Y. C. lines at Bellefontaine today.

The Lippincott history tells us of holding school in the Town Hall. Since our Town Hall was not built until some twenty years later, we are at a loss to locate the hall. Our scrapbook tells the story. What was used as a town building was the upstairs room over what is now the Armstrong & Kinnan hardware store.

The scrapbook evidence:

"Oct. 24, 1865. School was taken up today over the Smith Shoe Store. Margaret Moore taught the young ones and Moury the old ones."

Thos. J. Smith was the shoe dealer and he moved his shoe store up to the northeast corner of the public square when his father, Isaac Smith, completed the building in 1867. And ultimately became postmaster in the present location.

Margaret Moore married William Rea and as a result of that union there are numerous Rea boys and girls who went out in the world and reflected credit on DeGraff and its schools.

Into the building, vacated by Smith our father moved his stock of goods in 1870, using the rear upstairs for a tailor shop, presided over by William White. The front upstairs was occupied by a Mrs. Swan, with millinery and dress making. It was reached by an outside stairway. We should know, for we used to carry notes from Jake Lipp to daughter Minnie at 10 cents per, thereby being "accessory before the fact"—for they were subsequently married.

The Captain Lewis Taylor family were among the prominent people in early DeGraff. He built the brick house at the corner of Mill and Race Streets, was elected to a county office and moved to Bellefontaine, and his family moved west. In 1891 on our first trip to California, we called on Frank Taylor and his younger sister, Nellie. They were living on a ranch near Dixon, California.

Some twenty years ago when visiting the late Wm. E. Henderson at Sacramento, Calif., who passed away in his 93rd year, he told us that an old lady who saw our name in the paper, said she knew us and wanted us to come and see her. The name she gave, we never had heard before, but we went to the address and when an old lady admitted us we gave our name and asked, "Did we ever know you?" She said she once was Adelaide Taylor and that she used to come to our house often when we were young boys. And then, we remembered that she came to our house one evening, having walked down the railroad tracks from where she was teaching school. Mother asked her if she wasn't afraid to travel alone, so she reached in the folds of her dress and drew out a revolver, saying she wasn't afraid to go anywhere alone.

We remeneberd that she carried a revolver when she was teaching school in the Turner-Kinsinger school district—she was twenty years old. Adelaide had gone a long road from the bright vivacious twenty-year-old girl that I knew.

Frank Fisher had a barber shop in a railroad box car, that was located between Dr. Hance's house and the Farm Bureau Elevator. He became a hero in our youthful eyes because of his nerve and bravery. A crew of railroad section men got hold of some bad liquor and went on a rampage down by the engine house. When Marshall Henry Wheeler sought to quiet them, one of them knocked Wheeler down the gravel pit and defied any arrest. So Wheeler reported to the Mayor that it would require the Sheriff to go into that drunken crowd. Then up spoke Frank Fisher, "Give me a warrant for Tommy—I'll bring him in." He did.

URI M. STILES.

Three brothers by the name of Stiles came from England to America as early as 1750. One of them located in New Hampshire, one went to the Carolinas, and one to New Jersey. The direct ancestors of Uri M. settled in New Hampshire. It was here that Asel Stiles, the father of the above, was born in 1783, and lived there until manhood, at which time he went to New York State, where he married Urana Johnston in 1805. In 1813 they removed to Ohio, and located in Greene County, where they lived until 1832, when they removed to Logan County. Their family at that time consisted of father, mother, and eight children. It was here that Uri was brought when but a few months old. Here he lived, and was educated in the common schools of the neighborhood. He remained with his parents while they lived. His father died in 1859; his mother in 1862. On December 24, 1862, he married Rachel A. Wilkinson, and the following year settled in Perry Township, on the same section settled on by the grandfather of Mrs. Stiles in 1818. Mr. Stiles remained on this place until 1878, when he removed to his new home in Pemberton, where he has built a fine brick dwelling, one of the best in the township. Mrs. Stiles died January 14, 1881, leaving two children, viz., Ann U., born 1868, and Stella M., born 1877.

There are but few who have had more ancestors who have taken an important part in the freedom of our country from the British yoke than did the ancestors of Mr. Stiles. His grandfather Stiles served five years in the army of the Revolution. His grandfather Johnston, together with seven of his brothers, also served throughout the war. One of them was killed at the battle of Bennington. They were present at the surrender of Burgoyne. Also Mr. Johnston was by the side of Gen. Washington when the news was brought to him of Benedict Arnold's treason.

G. W. LIPPINCOTT

was born in the State of New Jersey in 1826. His parents were Jacob Lippincott and Debro Burge Lippincott. He came to Shelby County in 1847, and married Sarah J. Line in 1856. They have raised a family of five children, viz., James, John, Edward, William, and Franklin.

EMERY F. MARRS

was born in Illinois in 1855; came with his father, William Marrs, to Shelby County in 1860. In 1879 he married Jane Key. From this union they have two children, Myrtle D., born 1880, and Harry Lee, born 1881.

ISAIAH W. STALEY.

About the year 1750 Conrad Staley, a German by birth, emigrated to America, and located in the colony of Pennsylvania near Lancaster. It was here, in the year 1762, that John Staley, the father of the subject of our sketch, was born. About 1780 he went to North Carolina, and a few years afterward married Mary Smith, and had a family of fourteen children, eleven of whom lived to grow up to manhood and womanhood. Isaiah W. was the twelfth child, and was born March 8, 1808. He lived with his father till he was eighteen years of age. His father was a blacksmith by trade. Isaiah learned the trade with his father. At the age of eighteen his father gave him his time. He then started out to travel and see the country. He spent five years travelling from place to place. He would stop and work at his trade a short time in a place, then start again and travel until his means were nearly exhausted, then stop and work awhile. In this manner he did until he had travelled over North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio, without any object in view except to see the country. As early as 1827 he visited his relatives in Shelby County. He finally in 1832 brought up in Little York, Montgomery County, where he formed the acquaintance of Susan Hutchins, to whom he was married the same year. At the time of his marriage he had but $40; with this he started shop, and worked a short time until ague and sore eyes compelled him to quit work. By the time he was able to work again he found himself $85 in debt, and not a dollar to pay with. He went to work again as soon as able and paid his indebtedness, and worked on until he had saved $100. With this money he took his wife and two children to Allen County, Ohio, near Fort Amanda, and entered eighty acres of land. This was in February, 1836. They soon got tired of their home in the woods, and the following June he traded his land for eighty acres in Perry Township, Shelby County (the same is now owned by Daniel Vandemark), agreeing to pay $200 difference. He moved on to this land in 1837. At the time he settled on it there was not a stick cut. He remained here until he had cleared sixty-two acres, when he sold it to Daniel Vandemark for $4000 cash. A short time previous to the sale of this land he had thirty-five acres in Logan County, and moved built upon it

ISAIAH W. STALEY.

About the year 1750 Conrad Staley, a German by birth, emigrated to America, and located in the colony of Pennsylvania near Lancaster. It was here, in the year 1762, that John Staley, the father of the subject of our sketch, was born. About 1780 he went to North Carolina, and a few years afterward married Mary Smith, and had a family of fourteen children, eleven of whom lived to grow up to manhood and womanhood. Isaiah W. was the twelfth child, and was born March 8, 1808. He lived with his father till he was eighteen years of age. His father was a blacksmith by trade. Isaiah learned the trade with his father. At the age of eighteen his father gave him his time. He then started out to travel and see the country. He spent five years travelling from place to place. He would stop and work at his trade a short time in a place, then start again and travel until his means were nearly exhausted, then stop and work awhile. In this manner he did until he had travelled over North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Indiana, Michigan, and Ohio, without any object in view except to see the country. As early as 1827 he visited his relatives in Shelby County. He finally in 1832 brought up in Little York, Montgomery County, where he formed the acquaintance of Susan Hutchins, to whom he was married the same year. At the time of his marriage he had but $40; with this he started shop, and worked a short time until ague and sore eyes compelled him to quit work. By the time he was able to work again he found himself $85 in debt, and not a dollar to pay with. He went to work again as soon as able and paid his indebtedness, and worked on until he had saved $100. With this money he took his wife and two children to Allen County, Ohio, near Fort Amanda, and entered eighty acres of land. This was in February, 1836. They soon got tired of their home in the woods, and the following June he traded his land for eighty acres in Perry Township, Shelby County (the same is now owned by Daniel Vandemark), agreeing to pay $200 difference. He moved on to this land in 1837. At the time he settled on it there was not a stick cut. He remained here until he had cleared sixty-two acres, when he sold it to Daniel Vandemark for $4000 cash. A short time previous to the sale of this land he had bought one hundred and sixty-five acres in Logan County, and moved
